

ACPP APPS DARWIN 2011

New Frontiers in Plant Pathology for Asia and Oceania

26-29 APRIL 2011 • DARWIN CONVENTION CENTRE • DARWIN, NT

THE 4th ASIAN CONFERENCE ON PLANT PATHOLOGY CONCURRENT WITH THE 18th BIENNIAL AUSTRALASIAN PLANT PATHOLOGY SOCIETY CONFERENCE

Registration for the 4th Asian Conference on Plant Pathology concurrent with the 18th Biennial Australasian Plant Pathology Society Conference is now open. Click here for more information and to visit the conference website.

Draft session topics

Alternatives to chemical control	New fungicides
Bioinformatics and genomics of plant pathogens	New technologies
Biosecurity	Plant-pathogen interactions
Cereal pathology (winter cereals, rice)	Population genetics
Disease management	Prokaryotic pathogens
Disease surveys	Soilborne diseases
Epidemiology	Training, extension & technology transfer
Forest pathology	Tropical horticulture
Global food security	Virology
Modelling and crop loss assessment	Other
Natural ecosystems

Workshops

Various workshops are available covering different topics so we need to determine which one(s) you are interested in attending. For workshop descriptions, go to the website and place your votes (maximum of three). Don't miss the opportunity to have your say, click here to register your workshop preferences.

NB. Workshops with limited interest will not be on offer. Last date to have your vote is Friday 20th August.

Plenary speakers information will be available in the near future.

Key Dates

Now open - Call for abstracts

Now open - Online Registration

25 September 2010 - Call for abstracts close

21 January 2011 - Early bird registration closes

Add to Calendar

Register for Updates